

1 Ito oconomy of Tamaraii) in 20;1 !:1)0y,w(1 0)411 lho foto of 6,;rio over the hnd an averafjo foal c,t)c) Trio, past decade (2010. 2019). ht3 information placed tho country to b) ;UMW] t1)& fastest growing economies in Africa and in the world, In line to this, the Bank of Taniarki (POT) and the International Monetary Fund (IMF) also showed that the real GDP of Tanzania grew key 4.9°, in 2021 reaching USD 70,28 billion, In view to this,quantitative research study is be conducted to illustrate the relationship(s) between the development of Tanzania and use of leadership and governance skills and how it affects the efficiency and effectiveness of the economic growth. The study is also looking the relationship between Good Governance and how it was by the Government in promoting economic growth, In this respect, the three months study between July 2023 to October 2023 is use descriptive correlation design method to collect primary and secondary information from 100 employees from the Ministry of Constitution and Legal Affairs (MoCLA) headquarters in Dodoma City, Tanzania. The information to be collected is also use to explain the relationship between the elements of Good Governance skills and economic development used by the MoCLA as stated by the United Nations and Economic Growth of the country. It is anticipated that the amount of Tas 1.6million is be enough to accomplish data collection, analysis and presentation.

Key words: Accountability; Economic Development; Economic Growth; Good Governance;

Public Sectors